A NEW MUSIC BOOK, OR THE,
New York Musical Review,
FOR NOTHING!
We have in press, and shall publish in October, "ASAPH, OR THE CHOIR BOOK;" a new collection of Church Music for Singing Schools and Choirs, by Dr. LOWELL MASON. Dr. MASON'S last similar work, published in 1854, reached the enormous sale, in its first year, of over 54,000 copies, which is, we are confident, the largest sale ever enjoyed, in its first season, by any Church Music Book by a single author. The work now in press will embrace nearly all new matter, culled with great care from numerous sources, such, as it is believed, will be of the highest interest to Choirs and Singing Schools. Its Singing School Department is more extensive and complete than in any previous work, being, indeed, a complete work in itself, and forming an extensive collection of secular music, the words, as well as music, to which, are nearly all quite new. Retail price, one dollar.
We publish, also, THE NEW YORK MUSICAL REVIEW, a fortnightly journal of sixteen quarto pages, including four pages of choice music in each number, with twelve pages of reading matter, including frequent articles from the leading musicians of the country, with all the musical news, &c., &c. Subscription, $1,00 per annum.
In view of the present hard times, and with the purpose of obtaining a wide circulation for specimen copies of Dr. MASON'S new work, we are induced to make the following liberal offer, viz.. To every one sending us, before 1st November, one dollar, (the price of subscription to the REVIEW,) we will furnish the paper for a year, and also, as soon as issued, a copy of Dr. MASON'S new work above announced, thus giving two dollars' worth for one. Those desiring the book sent by mail, must inclose twenty-four cents, to pay postage, in advance.

VOSE'S CONFECTIONARY.
(Established 1827.)
IT SEEMS UNNECESSARY, after being in the battle-field for 34 years, to come out with a long advertisement, but as we have many new comers, it is right that they should be pointed to the right place to buy good articles, and at a moderate price.
I have a long experience, and every facility, and all improvements in machinery, that enables me to sell at a small profit; and will sell—quality considered—as low as any establishment in this city. I will sell Custard Cream at 30 cents per quart, according to quality, up to 62 cents for pure. Plain to very rich Cake, from 17 to 33 cents per pound. Candies from 16 to 25 cents per pound. All kinds of Gum Drops, when sold by the pound, 25 cents.
My Saloon is fitted up in good style, and will accommodate about one hundred persons, where you will find a variety of Ice Creams, Cakes, Pastry, Tea and Coffee, to refresh the "weary and heavy-laden," at all times except Sunday, that day we keep to refresh ourselves. jy3

A CHALLENGE AND A REWARD
$500 REWARD.
I BEG LEAVE to inform my friends and the community, that from recent arrangements made by me, I NOW offer the above reward in good faith, which shall be paid in cash to any chemist or physician, of good and responsible standing in this State, who, on due analysis and satisfactory evidence, can find anything in the BRANDIES, WINES, GINS, &c., &c., NOW for sale by me as pure, other than is found in all PURE, GENUINE and UNADULTERATED ARTICLES.
Knowing, from experience, that our citizens in general labor under the impression, with good cause, that pure Liquors cannot be had, I, after much pains, studious investigation, and from the reliable source with whom I NOW contract for my supplies in these articles, do stake my reputation as a man, my integrity as a merchant, that if the liquors NOW sold by me as pure "are not so," then none can be had from the vineyards in France, or from any part of the world. As a proof of my sincerity, I challenge chemical contradiction, and invite all to come and test for themselves, when they will learn that NOW, "if never before," pure liquors can be purchased in Newport, by bottle or measure, for medicinal or family purposes, as cheap as in any other place in these United States.
WM. ALDERSON,
Newport, R. I.
N. B.—The main inducement for all to give me a call is, that my figure for the genuine article is rather less, than more, than is NOW charged for the handsome labeled bottled compounds so extensively sold all over the country a13

JOE. BOWER'S WEDDING.

The county of—— "away up in the mountains," boasts of one of the best judges in California. On the Bench he is firm, decided and prompt, not caring the snap of the finger for either the applause of friends, or the mutterings of enemies. He is, perhaps, the most devoted man to the law in all creation, and has his head so full of what he terms "judicial talk," that he not unfrequently finds himself making learned charges and passing sentence outside the court room.

On a recent occasion the judge was called on to exercise "the power and authority in him vested," in the case of a young couple, who desired to have their hearts united in the holy band of wedlock. Of course he consented to perform the pleasing duty, and on the appointed evening was promptly on hand at the house at which the affair was to come off. The room was crowded by the beauty and fashion in town, and none looked more dignified and happy than the judge himself, who, by the way, was dressed within an inch of his life.

It is customary on occasions of this kind referred to, for the good folks of the mountain towns to pass around the wine quite freely, and to their everlasting credit, we will add, they considered it no harm for one to manifest his interests in the joyous event by getting "lively."

The judge is an ardent admirer of the fair sex, having in the course of his life led the third one to the altar. To use his own language, he is a "great believer in weddings," and that he should become a little mellow amid the glorious scenes of the evening, was not to be wondered at by those who knew him intimately. He had the weakness of all good judges. He would occasionally take his "tod."

The wine had passed round and round and round. The music had ceased. The bride, Miss Nancy Harkens, and Joe Bowers, ... Harkens one, had arrived. Every heart throbbed with the most delightful emotions. The young gentlemen desired to know how "Joe" would stand it, and the young ladies were anxious to see how "Nance" would suffer the anxious shock. Others, again, who had closely observed the turn of affairs during the evening, fixed their attention upon the judge to see how he would manage to come out of the scrape.

At length the trying moment was announced; the judge arose very cautiously from the chair, which he had occupied in the corner of the room and casting his eyes over the company, who were present as invited guests. The judge had imbibed just enough to make him forget the nature of his business. He was full of "judicial talk," and required nothing but the presence of the Sheriff to start him. Looking sternly at the officer, he shouted fiercely:

"Mr. Sheriff, open the court and call order!"

A general twitter followed his command in the midst of which the Sheriff took the "court" gently by the arm, and led him to his seat in the corner, at the same time informing the august personage of his mistake.

Everything now bids fair for a pleasant and sudden termination of the affair until another annoyance, which was nothing less than the absence of the bridegroom, was observed. It turned out that he had just stepped across the street to join his friend in a parting drink, but before his return, some cold blooded wag had whispered into the ear of our fogy the cause of "delay in proceedings." Instantly the chair in the corner moved, and in that direction all eyes were fixed.

"Mr. Sheriff," slowly drawled the Judge, "bring Joe into court on a Supenar."—the Judge had his own way of pronouncing the word.

Then addressing the bride who stood in the foreground, and hung her head in deep confusion, he added:

"I spose you are the plaintiff. Well don't take on. Innocence and virtue will be protected by this court."

This was the saddest blunder of all.—The Judge was again made to see his mistake, and would have been considerably set back, had it not been for a corrective in the shape of "forty drops of the critter," which he instantly applied.

In a few moments all was ready in right down earnest. The bridegroom had arrived. The Judge never looked so dignified in his life. He evidently felt every inch a Judge.

"J-J-o-e B-o-w-e-r-s," commenced the man of law in that distressing style of speech with which he was invariably troubled when under the influence of liquor. J-o-e B-o-w-e-r-s, stand up.—Have y-y-ou anything to s-s-ay w-why s-sentence—"

"Stop, stop, stop Judge" shouted the Sheriff from the back part of the room.—

'You are not going to hang [illegible], but marry him."

The Judge drew a long breath and blinked rapidly, but stood his ground well. Recovering himself, he proceeded:

"Joe Bowers, do you take Nancy Harkens for your wife, so help you God?"

This was a tolerable effort, and Joe nodded assent.

"Nancy Harkens, it now remains for this court to—"

"Miss Nancy," resumed the Judge, after being set right, "do you take Joe Bowers for a husband to the best of your knowledge and belief, or do you not?"

The Judge then took the hands of the happy couple and joined them, and wound up the business as follows:

"It now remains for this here court to pronounce you, Joe Bowers, and you, Nancy Harkins, man and wife, and—(here the Judge paused to wipe the perspiration from his face, "may God Ormitv have mercy on your souls! Sheriff remove the culprits!"

The company roared. Joe and Nancy wilted. The Sheriff was taken with leafing. The Judge let himself out loose in a glass of apple-jack. It was the greatest wedding ever witnessed.

FORT HENRY.

The fort which was taken in an easy victory by our gunboats on Thursday on the Tennessee river, appears to have been a considerable earthwork, without bomb-proofs, and mounting twenty guns and seventeen mortars. It appears to have been erected mainly to cover the bridge on which the Memphis and Ohio Railroad crosses the Tennessee. It is on the east bank of the river, at the head of a "stretch" of two miles, about fifty-five miles from the Ohio, and very near the State line which runs from the Tennessee to the Mississippi. The railroad bridge is hardly more than twelve miles above, while directly to the east lies Dover and the rebel Fort Donaldson on the Cumberland, at the distance of perhaps fifteen miles. Above the fort and commanding it, was said to be a battery of two sixty-four pounders; but as our forces are reported to be at the railroad bridge, it seems probable that this battery was evacuated by the rebels.

The possession of this point appears to be of consequence in a double aspect. The railroad which is cut off is the Memphis line, which at Bowling Green joins the Louisville and Nashville road. A communication of importance in the rear of the strong position of the rebels has therefore been cut. Bowling Green is about ninety miles from Dover. It is also probable that this success is destined to play a part in the movement against Columbus, by cutting off that field of operations from any connection with the army in the rear of Bowling Green; but upon this it is quite too early to speculate.

It is quite important to observe that Fort Donaldson, which we understand to have been built to command the Cumberland at Dover, is now open to the attack of our forces from the rear. That point reduced, the Cumberland at Dover, is now open to the attack of our forces from the rear. That point reduced, the Cumberland would be open probably to Nashville, being navigable for that distance by steamboats at high water. The advantage is one, however, which will have to be seized and improved early, or there will be other batteries than that at Dover to reduce.

The British Navy.

The annual official return of the British navy has been published. The list shows a total of eight hundred and fifty-six vessels building, preparing, or in commission; of which seven hundred and two are steamers. It comprises "eighty-one line-of-battle-ships, each mounting from seventy-four to one hundred and thirty-one guns; twenty-two vessels each with an armament of from sixty to seventy guns; forty-four 51 gun frigates; the whole, with the exception of about ten of that number, being screw steamers; fifty-seven ships, each mounting from twenty-two to fifty guns, and the majority of which have a tonnage as large as [illegible]; twenty-nine screw corvettes, or frigates, each mounting twenty-two guns; three hundred and seventeen screw and paddle-wheel steamers, each carrying less than twenty-two guns; and one hundred and eighty-five screw gunboats, each provided with two Armstrong guns." The fleet in American waters comprises fourteen line-of-battle steamers, ranging from fifty-one to one hundred guns; seven from twenty to fifty, and fourteen small vessels, exclusive of all the vessels ordered to join the same command.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

FUNERAL OF WM. H. CLEGG.—This young man's remains were interred on Saturday. His funeral which took place at the Second Baptist Church was attended by the city authorities, and Co. A National Guard, together with a large number of our fellow citizens who sincerely mourn the loss sustained by his bereaved family.

The services in the Church consisted of a requiem performed in a masterly manner on the Organ by Mr. Graham as the procession moved into the church, after which several appropriate passages of Scripture were read and prayer offered by Rev. S. Adlam, who then delivered an able discourse an abstract of which we herewith give.

THE SERMON.

The text selected for the occasion was John, 11:35, "JESUS WEPT;" when it was observed that if anything was needed to show that religion does not require us to suppress our emotions, it is this brief but emphatic sentence.—Here is the purest and most perfect of all beings that ever appeared in our nature, manifesting the depth of his emotions by his tears.

We are assembled to pay the last token of respect to one, the circumstances of whose death has awakened an unusual interest, and to sympathise with those whose grief can be fully estimated by God alone.

Here are those who are following their first born, the son of their earliest and warmest love, to the grave; who watched over his infancy and his youthful steps, and who looked forward to the period when he would be the support and consolation of their declining days.

When last he left his home, full of vigor and of hope, with the blessings of his parents on him, little did they think they should so soon receive him again, only to weep over him, and to follow him to the tomb. We share, in part, this sorrow, and would direct them to Jesus, a brother born for adversity, who is touched with the feeling of our infirmities, and who will impart divine consolation to them.

It is altogether appropriate that the respect now shown to him that lies before us in death, should be given; that he should be attended by the City Authorities, by his companions in arms, and by his fellow citizens, to the grave. It is a debt we owe to the patriotism of one who, when his country was in danger from the parricidal hands of traitors, listened to her first cries, and ran to her defence; and who, when his first term of service expired, again laid himself on the altar a willing sacrifice, and has given all that the purest patriotism can give—his life, for his country's good. And now that he is borne back on his shield to the home of his early days, how suitable that the services of the youthful patriot and soldier should be thus acknowledged.

It is a cause of gratitude that while no father or mother was with him in his sickness, to console him, to smooth his pillow, or to present the cooling draught to his parched lips, all was done for him by his companions, who loved him, watched over him, and by day and by night ministered to him. To that Company we would express our thanks, especially to Lieut. Southwick, who carries in his bosom a generous as well as a brave heart, and who acted like a brother to our departed friend; and after closing his dying eyes, procured the casket in which he is enclosed, and conveyed him, without expense, to his father's home.—God bless the noble hearted soldier for his kindness to William Clegg.

He whom we are about to convey to the grave was distinguished for his integrity and veracity, and for those qualities that awaken, wherever they are possessed, confidence and affection. He was beloved by those who knew him in this the home of his early days, and the same love was shown to him by his companions in arms, who did all that they could to show their sense of his worth.

Let us learn from the death of our young friend, the hardships, and privations, and exposures of the defenders of our country, and let us do what we can to alleviate their distress or diminish their dangers; and as they often will be placed in situations where they will need the counsels, and prayers, and sympathies of some pious friend, let us see that such friends be with them, to instruct them, and to point them in their dying moments to the sinner's friend.

After the close of the sermon a brief prayer was offered, at the close of which the procession was re-formed and moved to the Parade, and from there up Thames St., to the old burying ground, where the remains were interred and a benediction pronounced over them.

THE HOP.—We are requested to announce, that in order to give as much satisfaction as possible, the programme of dances will be subject to any changes which the Managers may approve.

We are also happy to inform our readers that Mr. C. E. White, the excellent and popular Professor of Dancing, has kindly offered his valuable services as Director.

Persons wishing carriages at a moderate charge, can have them by leaving their names at Tilley's or Mr. Thomas J. Weavers, No. 149 Thames St.

Distrust in the Rebel Capital.—The rebels are complaining that information of their movements leaks out when it should not, and charge that persons in the employment of the confederate authorities must in some cases have given intelligence to our Government. A recent issue of the Richmond Dispatch says:—

"There are individuals abroad in this city whom it is difficult if not impossible to prove anything against, but who are believed by every one who knows them to be subtle and deadly enemies of the Southern cause. Such men ought at least to be watched, and their operations of mischief, if they cannot be entirely prevented, in some measure, curtailed. For this purpose a corps of secret agents ought to be appointed, composed of men of shrewdness, intelligence and character, who can appreciate the interests involved in this matter."

An afflicted husband in Cincinnati visited his lately deceased wife's grave. To his horror he found her turned in her coffin and half her shoulder eaten off. She had been buried alive.

Quilp thinks the London Times is none the less an amusing print because, forsooth, it affects to despise jesting, and keeps anything like a joke out of its columns as carefully as if it were a fool!

President Lincoln and Hon. Simon Cameron.

The Harrisburg Telegraph publishes the correspondence between the President and Hon. Simon Cameron, late Secretary of War, in relation to the withdrawal of the latter from the Cabinet, and his appointment as Minister to Russia. The Telegraph says:—

Although, as it will be seen, this correspondence is marked private, its publication was rendered absolutely necessary, as well to maintain the truth of history as to serve the ends of justice. This must explain its appearance in the columns of the Telegraph. The letter of the President, in his own handwriting, reads as follows:

[PRIVATE.]

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11, 1862.

DEAR SIR:—Though I have said nothing hitherto, in response to your wish, expressed long since, to resign your seat in the Cabinet, I have been only unwilling to consent to a change at a time and under circumstances which might give occasion to misconstruction, and, unable, till now, to see how much misconstruction could be avoided.

But the desire of Mr. Clay to return home, and to offer his services to his country in the field, enables me now to gratify your wish, and at the same time evince my personal regard for you, and my confidence in your ability, patriotism and fidelity to public trust.

I therefore tender to your acceptance, if you still desire to resign your present position, the post of Minister to Russia.—Should you accept it, you will bear with you the assurance of my undiminished confidence, of my affectionate esteem, and of my sure expectation that, near the Sovereign whose personal and hereditary friendship for the United States so much endears him to Americans, you will be able to render services to your country, not less important than those you could render at home.

Very sincerely, your friend,
A. LINCOLN.

HON. SIMON CAMERON, Sec'ry. of War.

Gen. Cameron's reply to the President is as follows:—

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11, 1862.

MY DEAR SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge your favor of this date, and to thank you with profound respect, for its kind and generous tone. When you were elected President, a result to which I contributed my best exertions, I had no thought of leaving the Senate of the United States, or of accepting any position within your gift. But when you invited me to Springfield, Ill., and presented me the choice of one of two named places in the list of your constitutional advisers, I could not, for grave public reasons, and after great reflection, refuse a trust so trying and laborious.

My life had been one of constant labor and excitement. I looked to the Senate as the best field, after such a life, in which to serve my country and my State. It was only when I realized that I might be of service to the general cause, in the darkly-foreshadowed future, that I ventured to undertake the manifold and various responsibilities of the War Department. I felt, when I saw the traitors leaving their seats in Congress, and when the Star of the West was fired upon in Charleston harbor, that a bloody conflict was inevitable.

I have devoted myself without interruption to my official duties, and have given to them all my energies. I have done my best. It was impossible, in the direction of operations so extensive, but that some mistakes should have happened, and some complications and complaints should have arisen. In view of such considerations, I thank you for the expression of your confidence in my ability, patriotism, and fidelity to public trust. Thus, my own conscientious sense of doing my duty by the Executive and by my country is approved by the acknowledged head of the government himself.

When I became a member of your Administration I avowed my purpose to retire from the Cabinet as soon as my duty to my country would allow me to do so. In your letter of this day's date, so illustrative of your just and upright character, you revive the fact that I some time ago expressed the same purpose to you, and in reminding me of this you proffer for my acceptance one of the highest diplomatic positions at your bestowal, as an additional mark of your confidence and esteem.

In retiring from the War Department, I feel that the mighty army of the United States is ready to do battle for the Constitution; that it is marshaled by gallant and experienced leaders; that it is animated with the greatest enthusiasm for the good cause, and also that my successor in this Department is my personal friend, who unites to wonderful intellect and vigor, the grand essential of being in earnest in the present struggle, and of being resolved upon a speedy and overwhelming triumph of our arms.

I therefore frankly accept the new distinction you have tendered me, and as soon as important and long-neglected private business can be arranged, I will enter upon the important duties of the mission which you have assigned me.

I have the honor to be, my dear sir.
Your obedient and humble servant.
SIMON CAMERON.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President.

CORRESPONDENCE WITH FEDERAL PRISONERS.—Corporal Merrill, recently released from imprisonment at Richmond, thus describes the facilities afforded to the federal prisoners for obtaining letters:

"Respecting the facilities for mail delivery to the prisoners, I feel constrained to record a fact which was highly creditable to the sympathetic feelings of the Union officers, and correspondingly to the discredit of the Confederate authorities. At one period some three hundred letters, addressed to the Union prisoners, had accumulated at the Post-office, and were withheld from their owners nearly a fortnight. As soon as the Union officers were made aware of this fact, they inquired as to the cause, and were informed that the authorities declined to deliver them until the postage was paid, and as they believed that but few of the privates had any pecuniary means, they had determined to withhold them. Upon this explanation the Union officers directed that the letters should be delivered forthwith, and that they would pay the postage, which amounted to some twenty-five dollars. The Confederate authorities invariably exacted seven cents per letter on delivery at the prison, notwithstanding that the five cents Confederate postage was PREPAID by the writers in an enclosure to General Wool."

WAR NEWS.

IMPORTANT FROM THE SOUTH.

BURNSIDE REPULSED AT ROANOKE, BUT STILL FIGHTING.

NORFOLK, Feb. 8th.

The Roanoke Messenger reports four Federal steamers off the Island last night. A large number of vessels were twelve miles below the Island, and an attack was expected.

Gen. Wise is in better health.

A despatch from Clarksville says Fort Henry has fell into the hands of the enemy. Our forces retreated to Fort Donelson. The Federal Gunboats are at Danville, Tennessee, Bridge.—That place was destroyed by the yankees. 20,000 Federals formed the attacking column.

MEMPHIS, Feb. 7th.

Fort Henry was captured by the Federals, yesterday, after two hours fighting.

FORT MONROE, Feb. 8th.

A lady passenger, by a flag of truce reports that Gen. Hugher, to-day, informed her that he had received dispatches from Roanoke Island to the effect that the Federals force had advanced to Roanoke Island and been twice repulsed. The attack commenced at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, and fighting was still going on.

GEN. BEAUREGARD'S REPORT.

The report of the "Battle of Manassas," as Beauregard calls the battle of Bull Run, has, after a delay of nearly seven months, been published. It is a paper of great length, and gives a detailed account of the various phases of the battle, but says nothing of the reasons for delaying the publication. According to this report the effective force of Beauregard on the morning of July 21st, amounted to 21,833 men and twenty-nine guns, to which must be added the "army of the Shenandoah" under General Johnston—that which General Patterson and his helpers, FitzJohn Porter and John Newton (since promoted to brigadier generalships) permitted to leave Winchester in peace and march down to Manassas without obstruction. Of this army the report says 8834 men were on the ground during the battle, thus making a total of 30,667 men at Beauregard's command, of whom all except perhaps 1500 were engaged. In General McDowell's report of the battle it appears that not more than 18,000 or 19,000 of our troops were really engaged with the enemy, the bulk of our army remaining out of action.

1st. Col. Evans, with nine hundred men and two six-pounders, effectively withstood nine thousand of our soldiers, with thirteen rifled guns, among whom were, it is reported, seventeen companies of regulars. This reads like the Baron Munchausen.

2d. One company, under Capt. Duke, whom Beauregard calls a meritorious officer, is said to have held in check and forced to inactivity the whole brigade of Gen. Schenck; and two six-pounder guns at the same time drove off our celebrated Sherman battery. "which quit the contest under the illusion that it had weightier metal than its own to contend with."

3d. Gen. Beauregard says:

"I regret my inability to mention the names of those patriotic gentlemen of Virginia, by the gratuitous labor of whose slaves the entrenched camp at Manassas had been mainly constructed, and giving opportunity for their military instruction."

4th. He reports 269 killed and 1483 wounded; total, 1852.

5th. He gives a list of captures:

"Including some twenty-eight field-pieces of the best character of arm, with over one hundred rounds of ammunition for each gun, thirty-seven caissons, six forges, four battery wagons, sixty-four artillery horses, completely equipped, five hundred thousand of small arms rounds of ammunition, four thousand five hundred sets of accoutrements, over five hundred muskets, some nine regimental and garrison flags, with a large number of pistols, knapsacks, swords, canteens, blankets, a large store of axes and entrenching tools, wagons, ambulances, horses, camp and garrison equipage, hospital stores and some subsistence."

6th. He says:

"Added to these results may rightly be noticed here that by this battle an invading army superbly equipped, within twenty miles of their base of operations, has been converted into one virtually besieged, and exclusively occupied for months in the construction of a stupendous series of fortifications for the protection of its own capital."

Lastly, he admits that his army was not in condition to pursue ours.

More Pay Wanted.—The Memphis Appeal is distressed, because, as the editor says, paper and pasteboard are becoming so scarce down South that Davis will soon not be able to manufacture money any longer for lack of these indispensables.—This is rather a poor look out, especially as there seems to be some trouble about re-enlistments in the rebel army, for which fatal breakdown the only cure the Richmond papers can suggest is a large increase in pay. Of course the chivalry scorn to enlist for filthy lucre. We heard all that discussed at great length last spring, when they were in the habit of making inodorous comparisons between the brave patriots of the South and the cowardly and money-loving Yankees. Nevertheless, the Virginia Legislature is urged to take immediate measures for adding to the pay of soldiers, so as to make it at least eighteen dollars per month. "In no other way," says one of these journals, "can the Virginia troops be induced to re-enlist."

An Earthquake in Connecticut.—On Sunday evening about 7 o'clock, a sharp earthquake shock startled the people of Chatham, East Haddam, and adjoining towns in Middlesex County. The vibrations apparently proceeded from the northwest to the southeast, and were so sharp as to cause a violent rattling of doors, windows, stoves, crockery &c. The shock lasted six seconds, and resembling the sound that would be caused by rolling a heavy cannon ball along a rough floor. About 9 o'clock the same evening, another lighter shock occurred, and in the morning about 4 o'clock still another took place. The unusual visitation caused considerable sensation, especially in the evening prayer meetings; in some cases several dozens rose and left the house precipitately.

THE New York Chamber of Commerce has passed the following resolutions:—

"Resolved, That in the opinion of the Chamber, the present financial condition of the country requires the immediate passage of the bill, now in Congress, which authorizes the issue of $100,000,000 United States Notes, as a circulating medium, and makes said notes with the $50,000,000 demand notes heretofore issued a legal tender in payment of debts.

"Resolved, That the merchants of New York will sustain the Government by all the means in their power, in giving credit and currency to these notes, until they can be placed on a specie basis by the imposition of taxes adequate for their redemption."

Senator Simmons's National Bank—Tax Bills to be Reported Next Week.

Senator Simmons will introduce to-day a project for a National Bank, a Funding Bank and Fiscal Agency.

The Committee of Ways and Means hope to report tax bills to the House next week.

It is yet doubtful whether the legal tender clause of the Treasury note bill will pass the Senate.

The resolutions of the N. Y. Chamber of Commerce in favor of the legal tender were presented to the House by F. A. Conkling.

The judiciary committee of the Senate will report in favor of the admission of Mr. Starke, of Oregon, to his seat.

PIUS IX., as thus described by an English correspondent, has greatly changed in the last few years:

"His mind and memory are rapidly becoming enfeebled, and he continually contradicts one day his most solemn assertions of the day before. Formerly his face was certainly a good and pleasing one. Now, even benevolence itself seemed hardly venerable in that flaccid countenance, with its uncertain eyes and trembling lips."

Died.

On the 6th inst., at New York, of Scarlet Fever, Louis de Luze, youngest son of John D. Ogden, aged 4 years and 7 months.

THE MOST WHOLESOME BREAD,
Sweeter, Lighter, and More Nutritious than any other, is made by using
SAMUEL KIDDER, & CO'S
IMPERIAL YEAST POWDER.
A new article, which is pure, reliable and economical.
I have analyzed Samuel Kidder & Co's "Imperial Yeast Powder," manufactured by Messrs. Daniel F. White & Co., and found the base of vegetable origin to be so adjusted as to form a new and superior article for raising dough. It produces, with even ordinary flour, white, spongy and perfectly wholesome bread, and retains its power of action under exposure. Being free from mineral acids, and dangerous metallic salts, it should be preferred to compounds, frequently sold as yeast powders.
Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

GREAT INDIAN REMEDY

For Females.

Dr. Mattison's Indian Emmenagogue.

This celebrated Female Medicine, possessing virtues unknown of anything else of the kind, and proving effectual after all others have failed, is designed for both married and single ladies, and is the very best thing known for the purpose, as it will bring on the monthly sickness in cases of obstruction, from any cause, and after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain.

OVER 2000 BOTTLES have now been sold without a single failure, when taken as directed, and without the least injury to health in any case. ☞ It is put up in bottles of three different strengths, with full directions for using and sent by express, closely sealed, to all parts of the country.

PRICES—Full strength, $10; half strength, $6; quarter strength, $3 per bottle.

☞ Remember! This medicine is designed expressly for OBSTINATE CASES, which all other remedies of the kind have failed to cure; also that it is warranted as represented IN EVERY RESPECT, or the price will be refunded.

☞ BEWARE OF IMITATIONS! None genuine and warranted unless purchased directly of Dr. M., or at his office, rear of No. 28 Union Street, Providence, R. I.

Dr. Mattison's Diuretic Compound,
For Acute and Chronic Gonorrhœa.

This new remedy contains neither Balsam Copaiva, Spirits of Nitre, Cubebs, Turpentine, or any other nauseous drugs, but is an elegant vegetable liquid, pleasant to the taste and smell, greatful to the stomach, cooling, cleansing and healing in its operation and speedily allaying all heat and irritation in the urinary passages. You, therefore, who have been swallowing down Balsam Copaiva either in capsules or mixtures for months in succession, until with pale face and disordered stomach your breath and clothes are filled with its vile odor; throw away the disgusting mixtures, and send for a bottle of this New Remedy, which will not only cure you at once, but at the same time it will cleanse the system from the injurious effects of the various mixtures you have been taking so long.

☞ ONE BOTTLE, WHICH LASTS A WEEK, WILL OFTEN EFFECT A PERMANENT CURE.—Price $2,00.

Dr. Mattison's Sirop Anti-Syphilitique,
For Secondary, Tertiary and Hereditary Syphilis.

No remedy ever discovered has done what has been achieved by this. Under its use every form of constitutional syphilitic taint is speedily cured, and in a few weeks the subtle poison is completely eradicated from the system, and health and strength are permanently restored.

☞ It was this remedy that cured in a few weeks a gentleman from the South, then stopping at Newport, and for which he presented Dr. M with $450 besides his bill, after having been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York for FIVE YEARS.

One bottle, which lasts a month, will often effect a perfect cure. Price, $10; half size, $5.

Dr. Mattison's Nerve Invigorator.
For Nervous Debility, Loss of Power, Impotency, Confusion of Thought, Loss of Memory, Irritable Temper, Gloomy Apprehensions, Despondency and Melancholy, which may end in Loss of Reason.

This new remedy for that fearful train of mental and physical evils arising from venereal excesses, and secret habits of the young, is composed of the most soothing, strengthening and invigorating medicines to be found in the whole Vegetable Kingdom, which, in combination, form the most perfect Antidote for this obstinate and distressing class of maladies ever yet discovered.—It has now been sent to nearly every State in the Union, relieving the untold sufferings of hundreds who have never seen the inventor, restoring them to comparative health, strength and happiness. Prices—Quart bottle, which last a month, $10; half size, $5.

☞ These four GREAT REMEDIES are the result of over twenty years' study and practice, and as now prepared they are known to be the very best for their respective purposes, and I am therefore induced to make them public for the mutual benefit of myself and the sick, who otherwise could never avail themselves of their benefits. They are all warranted as represented, in every respect, or the price will be refunded.

☞ Prepared and sold ONLY at DR. MATTISON'S REMEDIAL INSTITUTE FOR SPECIAL DISEASES rear No. 28 Union street, Providence, R. I., and sent by express, secure from observation, to all parts of the United States.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

☞ It has been estimated that over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars are paid to swindling quacks annually in New England alone; and that, too, without any benefit to those who pay it. All this comes from trusting, without inquiry, to men who are alike destitute of honor, character or skill, and whose only recommendation is their own false and extravagant assertions, in praise of themselves. The only way to avoid imposition is to take no man's word, no matter who his pretensions are, but MAKE INQUIRY It will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in nine cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are.

Dr. M. will send free, by enclosing one stamp as above, a Pamphlet on DISEASES OF WOMEN, and on Private Diseases generally; giving full information, with the most undoubted references and testimonials without which no advertising physician, or medicine of this kind is deserving of ANY CONFIDENCE WHATEVER.

☞ Orders by mail promptly attended to. Write your address plainly, and direct to DR. MATTISON, as above. d18-1y

NOTICE.—We are daily receiving orders to send by mail some one or more of Dr Hurd's Dental Remedies, which we cannot fill.—None are mailable except the Neuralgia Plaster, which we send in an envelope on receipt of Price (15 cents) and one stamp.—But to accommodate persons in places where the druggists and store keepers are behind the age, we have put up packages in white embossed boxes, seven inches by four, with compartments—each box containing a bottle of Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash, and Tooth Ache Drops, a box of Tooth Powder, the Neuralgia Plaster, and a valuable little Treatise on Teeth and their Diseases, the best means of preserving them, and the proper treatment of Children's Teeth, (worth of itself the entire cost to every young man or woman, or parents with young children;) with sundry other necessary articles; price per package, one dollar, or six packages for $5, sent by express as directed. As the Express charges are not much, if any, more on a dozen than on one, it is far cheaper to order six or a dozen packages at one time. A large family will want all, or the surplus can be disposed of to neighbors with public benefit, for no one can estimate how much pain, suffering, unhappiness, and disfigurement, expense, loss of time and money would be saved to the country if every family to-day had one of these packages, which, in itself, is a complete set of Dental Remedies. Address WM. B. HURD & Co., Tribune Buildings, New York, and write name and address plainly. That remittances may be made with confidence. W. B. H. & Co. refer to the Mayor of Brooklyn, to G. W. GRIFFITH, President of the Farmers and Citizen's Bank, Brooklyn; to the Editor of the American Manufacturers' Gazette; to Joy, Coe & Co., Publishers' Agents, New York; to P. T. BARNUM Esq., who knows a good thing when he sees it and who has already ordered a second supply, etc.

1000 Agents Wanted,

To introduce Dr. Hurd's Dental Remedies into every County. Men or women who want to make money quickly, can do better with these articles than anything in market. They are new, useful, low priced, and we are spending thousands in advertising them for the benefit of agents. Boxes of samples, containing a dozen of the one dollar packages above specified, with circulars will be sent on receipt of seven dollars, about half price, to any person wishing to test his or her skill in selling with the view of becoming an agent. They can be sold in a day.—☞ We would rather pay salaries than Commissions to those who prove themselves efficient salesmen.

☞ Now is the time to go into the business. For address and references see above.

PROF. L. MILLER'S

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND.

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color, without dyeing, and preventing Hair from turning gray.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections of the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriantly, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy and flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thinning, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of his Invigorator, in cases where the children's Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper, also, L. MILLER'S INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

SOMETHING MORE VALUABLE THAN SILVER OR GOLD,

BECAUSE

IT WILL RESTORE THE WEAK, REINSTATE THE BLOOD IN ALL ITS ORIGINAL PURITY AND VIGOR.

It is

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

AND

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

Is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all.

So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted so as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits.—It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a sure preventive and cure of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NERVOUS IRRITABILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT SWEATS, LANGUOR, GIDDINESS, AND ALL THAT CLASS OF CASES SO FEARFULLY FATAL, CALLED FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES,

THERE IS NOTHING ITS EQUAL.

Also, Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but prevent all attacks arising from miasmatic influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELERS should have a bottle with them, as it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits.

LADIES not accustomed to much out door exercise should always use it.

MOTHERS should use it, for it is a perfect relief, taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety!

There is no mistake about it!!

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!! MOTHERS TRY IT!!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters before it be too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave, rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business, that if it were not for you, they, too, would travel in the same downward path until it is too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, proprietor, No. 444 Broadway, New York, and No. 114 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good druggists. Price one dollar per bottle.

Read what the Press say, after thoroughly testing the matter, and no one can have a doubt.

Prof. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator is a genuine medicine of real merit, pleasant to the taste and invigorating to the system. While it purifies the blood and soothes the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resist the assault of disease. It is a chemical compound so skilfully combined that while it exhilarates it does not provoke the lassitude which usually follows excitement. A tonic, composed exclusively of vegetable matter it is absolutely beneficial and no ill effects can possibly accompany its use. It is an infallible and speedy remedy for Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Falling of the Womb, and other delicate diseases to which woman is subject, For Sickness of the Stomach, Billious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Consumption and a host evils flesh is heir to, it is a certain cure.—St. Louis Morning Herald.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the Classics that Pysche was once sent to a climate warmer than the West Indies, to procure a sample of the beauty of Proserpine in a box. After some delay the messenger returned, and as soon as the lid of the box was removed, out flew all the ills that flesh is heir to. Fortunately hope was found in the bottom of the box. Prof. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial revives the recollection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digeston, imparts strength to the nervous system, and fortifies the citadel of health, so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it is exhilarating as pure wine, no injurious results can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Faintness, Giddiness, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, &c., will find here an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is, without doubt the best tonic Cordial in the world. To those who are suffering from General Debility, we would recommend its use, for it is pleasant to the taste, is strengthening to the system, and will at once tend to remove all impurities of the blood, and eradicate all traces of disease. It can be taken by the weakest stomach, while those in good health will at once feel its exhilarating power. We are confident that after using one bottle of this Cordial none will be for a day without it.—New York Leader.

A PURE, HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleterious and injurious effects sure to follow those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and thus sooth the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organs of which the human body is composed, is offered in Prof. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. Hence, it is perfectly adapted to old and young. Reader, try it. Thousands have already done so, and the testimony is universal in its favor.—New-York Atlas.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR, for the cure of General Debility, or Weakness arising from any cause; also, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Night Sweats, Incipient Consumption, Liver Complaints, Billiousness, Loss of Appetite, Female Weakness in all stages; also to prevent the contraction of disease, is certainly the best and most agreeable Cordial tonic and Renovator ever offered to the afflicted, and so chemically combined as to be the most powerful tonic ever known to medical science. Reader, try it. It will do you good. We have no hesitation in recommending it, since we know it to be a safe, pleasant and sure remedy for the diseases enumerated.—New York Dispatch.

Our INSTANTANEOUS STEREOSCOPIC VIEWS are

The Greatest Wonder of the Age.

These are taken in the fortieth part of a second, and the running of water, the moving of vehicles, or the march of an army does not in the slightest degree affect the taking of these views. They are sold for $3 per dozen.

We have also on hand and manufacturing the largest assortment of STEREOSCOPES PHOTOGRAPHIC ALBUMS, and PHOTOGRAPHIC MATERIALS in the United States, and perhaps in the world.

Catalogues, containing lists of all Portraits, Views, Stereoscopes, &c., will by sent free by mail, on receipt of a stamp.

CURE YOUR COUGH FOR ONE DIME!

Madame ZADOC PORTER'S

Great Cough Remedy.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S Curative Balsam is warranted if used according to the directions, to cure in all cases, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Coughs, Asthma, and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

MADAME ZADOCC PORTER'S Balsam is prepared with all the requisite care and skill, from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the blood, through the lungs. It is not a violent remedy, but emollient,—warming, searching and effective; can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S Balsam has been used by the public for over 18 years, and has acquired its present sale simply by being recommended by those who have used it, to their afflicted friends and others.

MOST IMPORTANT.—MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM is sold at a price which brings it in the reach of every one to keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a single bottle will prove to be worth 100 times its cost.

NOTICE.—SAVE YOUR MONEY!—Do not be persuaded to purchase articles at 4s. to $1, which do not contain the virtues of a Dime Bottle of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, the cost of manufacturing which is as great as that of almost any other medicine; and the very low price at which it is sold, makes the profit to the seller apparently small, and unprincipled dealers will sometimes recommend other medicines on which their profits are larger, unless the customers insist upon having Madame Porter's and none other.—Ask for Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, price 10 cts., and in large bottles at 20 cts. and take no other. If you cannot get it at one store you can at another.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and Store-keepers at 10 cts. and in larger bottles at 20 cts.

The entire press of the country has bestowed upon this work unanimously the highest encomiums. The Louisville Journal of October 8th, 1861, says of it:—

"It is a work of the highest merit. In fullness, completeness, accuracy, and logical as well as chronological dependence, it leaves nothing to be desired. We reckon the value of this work above price. It meets suitably the great literary demand of the hour. It is a work the lack of which would prove with posterity a cause of special reproach to our day and generation. Let everybody subscribe for it."

This work should be in every loyal family; it is a necessity for present information and in future days will be read with interest by children and grandchildren, as a memorial of the present most important era of our National History.

Vol. 2 will be issued in May, and Vol. 3 in September, 1862. But the work is continued also, as heretofore, in weekly parts at 10 cents, and monthly parts at 40 cents. For sale at all the book stores and news depots. Orders to be directed to
